

Hermosa Montessori Charter School

Celebrating the Love of Learning Since 1978

You Are Invited

To attend a special discussion led by Dr. Elizabeth Coe, PhD

What: An informative and interactive discussion on the unique physical and psychological development of adolescents and how the unique Montessori model meets their needs.

When: Tuesday, March 16th, at 7:00 p.m.

Where: *Hermosa Montessori Middle School
12051 E. Ft. Lowell Road
Tucson, Arizona 85750*

Who: Dr. Elizabeth Coe, PhD, in developmental psychology and adolescents

Dr. Coe is program designer and principal of the middle and high school programs at School of the Woods in Houston, Texas, where she is also Executive Director of the Houston Montessori Teacher Education Center.

She has served as president of the America Montessori Society, chair of the Teacher Education Committee, and chair of three annual education conferences. Dr. Coe currently chairs the Teacher Education Action Committee, and in March 2008 was honored in Washington, DC, as an AMS Living Legacy.

Dr. Coe speaks internationally on Montessori philosophy, adolescents, and peace education. She regularly visits, observes and consults with other Montessori middle and upper schools across North America and around the world.

R.S.V.P. juliej@hermosaschool.org by Tuesday, March 9th 520-749-5518, ext. 205

PRESENTED TO ADULTS ONLY. Thank you for making other arrangements for your children while attending discussion.

